INTRODUCTION

Mathelelo Engineering Services is a proudly 100% Black –Owned full service company based in Northern Cape Province, South Africa. The company specializes in Mining, Construction, Steel Works, Mechanical Maintenance, Lifting & Rigging, Welding & Pipe Installation, Conveyor Belts, Rebuilds Shoots and Replace Liners. It was established and founded by Mpomelelo Rodger Theko with the intention of contributing to the financial upliftment of the South African Economy. The idea of establishment this company was encouraged by the government policies to create job opportunities for the marginalized people of South Africa. We intended to network with other experienced businesses so as to source more knowledge and skills that may be required time to time, and to form business linkage between other businesses as to widen the scope of our operation.
